		)	OF SUPERVISED RELEASE

An initial hearing on a petition for violation of supervised release was held before the undersigned Magistrate Judge on September 25, 2007. The United States was represented by Assistant United States Attorney Susan M. Roe, and the defendant by Mr. Stephan R. Illa. The proceedings were recorded on cassette tape.

The defendant had been charged and convicted of Bank Robbery (2 counts) in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 2113(a). On or about July 6, 2001, defendant was sentenced by the Honorable Marsha J. Pechman to eighty-five (85) months in custody, to be followed by three (3) years of supervised release.

The conditions of supervised release included the requirements that the defendant comply with all local, state, and federal laws, and with the standard conditions. Special conditions imposed included, but were not limited to, participation in substance abuse and mental health programs, financial disclosure, $4,001 restitution, consent to search and seizure, and no alcohol.

01 In a Petition for Warrant or Summons dated September 4, 2007, and a Violation
02 Report and Request for Summons dated September 4, 2007, U.S. Probation Officer Angela
03 M. McGlynn asserted the following violations by defendant of the conditions of his supervised
04 release:

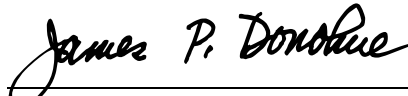

- 05 (1) Consuming alcohol on or before June 21, 2007, and August 19, 2007, in 06 violation of standard condition number 7.
- 07 (2) Failing to provide a urine specimen as directed on August 29, 2007, in violation 08 of the special condition requiring the defendant to submit to urinalysis testing.
- 09 (3) Consuming cocaine on or before September 2, 2007, in violation of standard
10 condition number 7.

11 On September 25, 2007, defendant made his initial appearance and was advised of the 12 allegations, and advised of his rights. Defendant admitted the violations, and waived any 13 rights to an evidentiary hearing as to whether they occurred.

14 I therefore recommend that the Court find the defendant to have violated the terms and 15 conditions of his supervised release as to Violations 1 through 3, and that the Court conduct a
16 hearing limited to disposition. A disposition hearing has not yet been set before the Honorable
17 Marsha J. Pechman.

18 Pending a final determination by the Court, the defendant has been released, subject to 19 continued supervision.

20 DATED this 25th day of September, 2007.
